BECOME A LEGACY SPONSOR

From the time the Lutheran Laymen's League (LLL) was formed more than a century ago, its mission has been to activate and motivate members to serve the Lord, participate in grassroots activities that meet local, national, and global ministry needs, and engage new supporters. Members have rallied around a variety of district and zone activities that not only provided fellowship opportunities, but meaningful ways to advance a cause close to their hearts.

When several members of the LLL's St. Louis Zone gathered in 1992, they knew they wanted to do something to raise money locally in support of the mission of Lutheran Hour Ministries, but they weren't sure the best way to accomplish their goal. After considering several ideas, the committee of Harold Bohlmann, Jules Bush, Jim Dankenbring, Larry Lumpe, Jim Rice, and Rev. Greg Smith decided to move forward with a golf tournament that would provide participants with a fun, competitive activity they could enjoy while simultaneously helping share the Gospel around the world.

That initial idea has turned into an annual event that has raised more than $1 million for various LHM ministry programs and projects over the past 33 years and has been supported by thousands of participants, volunteers, and sponsors. In addition, many supporters have provided sponsorship opportunities for Concordia Seminary students to enjoy a day of fellowship while learning about the outreach resources available to them through LHM.

While many of the tournament's original committee members have gone to their heavenly homes, you can carry forward the vision they set forth when establishing this long-standing event. If you cannot play this year, consider becoming a Legacy Sponsor to support the ongoing mission and ministry of LHM. Your gift will share Christ's love around the world with people who desperately need it.
